WASHINGTON, June 2, 1876, A few days ago Mr. Cox offered, but withdrow or objection being made, a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War to furnish the House with "a state-Secretary of War to furnish the House with "a statement of the number of troops now stationed in the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, of what arm of service, where they are stationed and for what purpose, giving the whole number and also the names of the various regiments and companies." As some political significance appears to be attached to the distribution of United States troops in the States designated the information desired by the gentleman from New York has been collected for the readers of the Heraald and is given below. The figures will be found to approximate within a corlected for the readers of the Herald and is given below. The figures will be found to approximate within a corporal's guard of the actual number of men on the muster rolls of the twenty-eight companies of cavalry, twenty-three companies of artiflery and ninety-three companies of infantry in the Southern States. As to the purpose for which they are stationed at their present posts, it may be characterized briefly as Mexicans, Indians, whiskey and politics, all more or less crooked.

The following is the statement in detail of troops in the Southern States:—

TROOPS IN THE SOUTHERN STATES.

the Southern States:— The only regular troops in are five companies of artillery at the Artillery School, Fort Monroe—viz., G of the First artillery, K of the Second, A of the Third, I of the Fourth and C of the Fitth. They number, including field and staff officers, about 200 men, and, as is well known, are assembled at old Point Comfort for instruction in artillery science, &c.—in other words, they are artillery men learning to be artillerists.

De artiflerisis.

NORTH CAROLINA.

In North Carolina there are about 186 soldiers, all of the Second artiflery, stationed as follows:—Companies D and E at Raieigh, Company F at Morgantown, companies I and L at Fort Macon and company M at Fort Johnston.

panies I and L at Fort Macon and company M at Fort Johnston.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Between 500 and 550 troops are in South Carolina. At Charleston are the headquarters and Companies E and F, of the Fifth artillery, and Company G, Second artillery. The headquarters and Companies B, D, F, G, H and I, of the Eighteenth infantry, are at Columbia. Company C, Eighteenth infantry, is at Yorkville, and Company K, of the same regiment, at Greenville.

GEORGIA.

The headquarters and six companies of the Second infantry and one artillery company are in Georgia. They are stationed as follows:—At Savannah, Company D, Fifth artillery; at Atlanta, headquarters and Companies B, D, H and I, of the Second infantry, and A and E, of the Eighteenth infantry.

Three hundred officers and men of the Fifth artillery are on duty in Florida; Companies A and K are at Fort Marron, St. Agustine; Companies B, I, I and M are at Fort Barrancas, and Companies G and H at Key West. Besides the monstrous garrison duty which ordinarily fails to the lot of artillery companies in time of peace, the troops at Fort Marion have some captive Kiowa, Comanche and Cheyenne Indian murderers to look after.

ALABAMA.

ALABAMA. In Alabama there are five companics—less than 200 men all told—of the Second infantry; Company A is at Itvingston, C at Huntsville, F and G at Mount Vernon Barracks and K at Mobile.

There are about ninety United States troops in Arkansas, the force being limited to two companies of the Sixtieth infantry (C and I), stationed at Little Rock.

kansas, the loree being limited to two companies of the Sixtieth Infantry (C and I), stationed at Little Rock.

Mississippi.

Five companies of the Thirteenth infantry and two of the Sixteenth occupy four posts in Mississippi.—viz., Companies A and I, Thirteenth infantry, at Vicksburg, Companies G and K, Thirteenth infantry, at Holly Springs; Company H, Thirteenth infantry, at Fort Gibson, and Companies B and H, Sixteenth infantry, at Jackson. Total, about 350 officers and mem.

Louisiana.

The whole of the Thirt infantry and the headquarters and five companies of the Thirteenth infantry, making an aggregate of less than 700 officers and men, are in Louisiana. In the city of New Orleans the headquarters and Companies D and F, Thirteenth infantry, are posted, and at Jackson Barracks are stationed the headquarters and Companies A, B, E and F, Thirt dufantry, Companies C and E, Thirteenth infantry, are at Baton Rouge; Company B, Thirteenth infantry, at Bayou Sara; Company C and I, Third infantry, at Pineville; Company B, Thirteinth infantry, at Pineville; Company B, Thirteinth infantry, at Pineville; Company B, Thirteinth infantry, at Rayou Sara; Company H, Thirteinth infantry, at Company G, Third infantry, at Coushatta, and Company K, Third infantry, at Shraveport.

TEXAS.

Nearly one-fifth of the entire cavalry and Infantry infantry, at Coushatta, and Company K, Third infantry, at Shroveport.

Nearly one-fifth of the entire cavalry and infantry force of the United States is in Texas, with one eye on the Mexicans and the other on the Indians. The Texan posts being nearly all "forts," look formtdable on paper. These are Fort Brown, garrisoned by Companies C, D, H, I and L, Eighth cavalry; C, D and I, Eleventh infantry, and the headquarters and Companies E and H, Twenty-fourth infantry; Fort Biliss, Company G, Twenty-fourth infantry; Fort Biliss, Company G, Twenty-fourth infantry; Fort Clark, headquarters and Company B, Eighth cavalry, and G and K, Tenth infantry; Fort Concha, headquarters and Company B, Eighth cavalry; A, Tenth inlantry, and H, Eleventh infantry; Fort Duncan, Company K, Eighth cavalry; B, Tenth inlantry; and D and F, Twenty-Jourth infantry; Fort Davis, Company H, Tenth cavalry, and headquarters and Companies B, E and G, Fourth cavalry, and H, Nineteenth infantry; Fort Elliott, Companies B, E and G, Fourth cavalry, and E, Tenth infantry; Fort McIntosh, Companies B, C, E, F and I, Tenth infantry; Fort McIntosh, Companies A, and B, Twenty-fourth infantry; Fort Richardson, headquarters and Companies B, E and K, Eleventh infantry; Ringgold Barracks, Companies A, E, G and M, Eighth cavalry, and C, G, I and K, Twenty-fourth infantry; Fort Shockton, Companies A, E, G and M, Eighth cavalry, and C, G, I and K, Twenty-fourth infantry; Ringgold Barracks, Companies A, E, G and M, Eighth cavalry, and C, G, I and K, Twenty-fourth infantry; Ronggold Barracks, Companies A, E, G and M, Eighth cavalry, and C, G, I and K, Twenty-fourth infantry; Fort Shockton, Company M, Tenth cavalry, and Company B, Teeth infantry; Fort Shockton, Company M, Tenth cavalry, and Company P, Tenth infantry; Fort Shockton, Company M, Tenth cavalry, and Company B, Eighth cavalry. COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

For some time past counterfeit national bank notes have become very numerous in Brooklyn. Every effort to discover the source from which they emanate has failed. These bills are the best counterfeits which have been issued for years, and the manufacturers find little difficulty in getting rid of them. They embrace in their denominations the following:—Twenty-dollar bills on the National Bank of Utica, N. Y.; $10 bills on the Farmers and Manufacturers' Bank of Pougakeepsie; $5 bills on the First National Bank of Chicago, Ill.; $5 bills on the First National Bank of Paxton, Ill.; $5 bills on the First National Bank of Paxton, Ill.; $5 bills on the First National Bank of Pecria, Ill.; $5 bills on the First National Bank of Aurora, Ill.; $5 bills on the National Bank of Aurora, Ill.; $5 bills on the National Bank of Morthampton, Mass.; $5 bills on the Mampden Bank of Westfleid, Mass.; $5 bills on the Mechanics' National Bank of New Bedford, Mass.; $1 bills on the First National Bank of New Bedford, Mass.; $1 bills on the First National Bank of Chicago, Ill.; $1 bills on the First National Bank of Chicago, Ill.; $1 bills on the First National Bank of Chicago, Ill.; $1 bills on the First National Bank of Louisville, Ky.

A PICKPOCKET ARRESTED.

While Mr. Joseph Einstein, of No. 156 Grand street, was passing the corner of Canal street and the Bowery, at haif-past eleven o'clock on Thursday night, he was accosted by Edward R. Wilkinson, of No. 23 Suffolk street, who delayed him in conversation for a few moments and then walked away. Mr. Einstein almost instantly missed his watch. He gave pursuit, and Wilkinson was arrested by Officer Hayes, of the Teath precinct, and the stolen property found in his possession. On being arraigned before Justice Morgan, at the Essex Market Police Court, yesterday, Wilkinson was committed in default of $1,000 bail.

A COOL ROBBERY.

James Wilson, who said he was a paper folder, stole a handcart, value $15, from in front of the store of Mr. William H. Thomas, No. 53 John street. He rolled it up the street until he came in front of the store of James H. Carpenter, No. 45, when he took two bundles of map paper, value $25, from the skilewalk, threw them into the handcart and went on his way. His progress, however, was interrupted by the advent of Officer Nolan, of the First precinct, who took him into custody. On being arraigned before Judge Wandell at the Tombs he was held for trial on both charges of larceny.

SAG HARBOR .WHARFAGE.

Governor Tilden has signed a bill in reference to wharfage at Sag Harbor. It gives the wharf company power to establish rates on vessels, merchandise, goods and chattels transported over or landed or deposited on its wharf, and to detain such property as security for the payment of such rates or charges until they shall be paid.

MENHADEN RAMPANT.

Large quantities have already been taken, and the sup-ply does not appear to diminish. On, Wednesday the handranen of Easthampton dapped their scines, and four nets caught over 500,000, one taking 175,000 on that day and 19,000 on the next. At Bridgehampton, too, the fishing is reported better than usual. Mr. 8. Phillips in one day took 338,000, and Nelson Bennest 146,000.
